

THE FULLERTON HOTEL
SINGAPORE

Project Manager

- Involved in all stages of projects from conceptualization, schematic design, detail design, tender documentation review to construction
- Ensure the smooth progress and completion of projects within cost, time and the highest quality standards
- Knowledgeable about authorities approval and to work with consultants to secure all necessary planning and technical clearances
- Lead, manage and coordinate closely with consultants, contractors and site team to deliver results
- Co-ordinate well with HQ (at HK) design department to align on design for group standard
- Assist in-house projects under CAPEX projects as and when require

Requirements:

- Degree in Architecture, Mechanical/Electrical/Civil/Structural Engineering or Building Services or equivalent
- At least 5 years of experiences in managing residential and commercial projects, master planning of mixed-use projects, project planning, development management, feasibility studies and cost control
- Good understanding of design, building regulations and project implementation process
- General knowledge of building services – M & E systems is an added advantage
- Ability to view and understand from a commercial perspective
- Prior experience in managing luxurious property projects or multi scale project will be an advantage

To apply for the above positions, please send your full resume to careers@fullertonhotel.com.